ITALY

7.5dl

Primitivo Borgo Sanleo I Apulien

54 | 8

Salento is the geographical heel of Italy's boot and consists of the province of Lecce and parts of the provinces of Taranto and Brindisi. The climate is sunny, but the vines benefit from a three-sided sea influence. The peninsula is surrounded by the Gulf of Taranto to the west, the Ionian Sea to the south and the Adriatic Sea to the east. As a result, there is always a cooling breeze blowing from somewhere. It couldn't be more Mediterranean and this is also reflected in the wines.

Roma Rosso DOC I Poggio Le Volpi

65

Roma brings a bit of warmth and sunshine to your glass. Roma captivates with its aromas of ripe red fruit complemented by balsamic notes. Maturation in wood provides vanilla tones and a hint of coconut. The tannins are soft and well integrated.

Ripasso Falasco Superiore Valpolicella DOC Valpantena
